Lucio dalla attenti al lupo testo

There is a hen, so small, with many colored windows, and a lover, so small, with two big eyes. And there's a snack, a little guy who always comes home from work, and he's got a hedge, so small, a dream about him that's come true, and the more he thinks about it the less he can wait. My love, you don't have to stay sad, this life is a chain, sometimes it's a little bad to see how much I am, even if I walk through the forest with the forehead of God's wolf. Be careful of the wolf. Cohabit.

The background is a meadow, so small, with a large Lärm with zicades and perfumes, so narrow and so small, my love, summer has come, my love has arrived, summer has come. We are both here, in the midst of this sea of cicadas, of this love, so small, so small, but so big that it seems to fly, and the more I think about it, the less I can wait. My love, you shouldn't stay sad, this life is a chain, sometimes it's a little serious, see how calm I am, even if the forest passes through, with the help of dear God, I'm still on the wolf. Cohabit. Do you have an interior in this song? Look with what calm I do this, even if when I walk in the forest, with the help of the good Lord, I will always be safe from the wolf. Beware of the wolf. Beware of the wolf. Live together. And we are both lying here and we love each other, between the cicadas of this sea, this love so small but so large that it seems to fly towards me, and the more I think, the less I expect. My love, you must not stay in sadness, this life is a chain, sometimes it's a bit bad, look how calm I am, even if I walk in the forest with the help of the good god, beware Always wolf.
