October 20, 1993

I, Jerry Neal, being duly cautioned and sworn, hereby state that the following actions and practices of the CITIZENS FOR STINZIANO campaign during the 1992 Ohio House of Representatives general election were in violation of federal elections law:

During the 1992 Ohio House of Representatives general election, the CITIZENS FOR STINZIANO campaign mailed literature to registered voters that promoted both his campaign and the campaign of Richard Cordray, then a candidate for the U.S. House of Representatives. The CITIZENS FOR STINZIANO campaign finance report clearly shows that a maximum contribution of $1,000 was also made to Mr. Cordray's campaign.

During the 1992 U.S. Presidential general election, the CITIZENS FOR STINZIANO campaign mailed literature to registered voters that promoted both his campaign and the Bill Clinton presidential campaign.

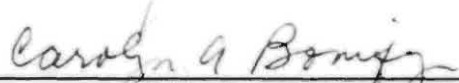

Each piece of literature displays the proper disclaimer, proving that the CITIZENS FOR STINZIANO campaign did, in fact, pay for and distribute this literature.

I contend that the CITIZENS FOR STINZIANO through the above actions did violate the following sections of the United States Code:

2 USC Section 441 (a)(1)(A), and 26 USC Chapter 95 Section 9003 (a).

Examples of the above stated campaign advertisements are attached. I request a full and thorough investigation of this matter by the Federal Elections Commission.

Dear Mr. Neal:

This is to acknowledge receipt on October 25, 1993, of your letter dated October 20, 1993. The Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971, as amended ("the Act") and Commission Regulations require that the contents of a complaint meet certain specific requirements. The preferred form is "Subscribed and sworn to before me on this ___ day of ___, 19__." A statement by the notary that the complaint was sworn to and subscribed before her also will be sufficient. We are sorry for the inconvenience that these requirements may cause you, but we are not statutorily empowered to proceed with the handling of a compliance action unless all the statutory requirements are fulfilled. See 2 U.S.C. § 437g.

Enclosed is a Commission brochure entitled "Filing a Complaint." I hope this material will be helpful to you should you wish to file a legally sufficient complaint with the Commission.

RESPONSE OF CLINTON FOR PRESIDENT COMMITTEE AND ROBERT A. FARMER, AS TREASURER

The Clinton for President Committee, Inc. and Robert A. Farmer, as treasurer, 1/ submit this response to the complaint filed by Jerry A. Neal, Jr., an unsuccessful candidate for the Ohio legislature. The complaint states neither a factual basis nor a legal theory for finding any violation by these respondents. This matter should be summarily closed.

For its charges against Clinton/Gore, the complaint states that "[d]uring the 1992 U.S. Presidential general election, the CITIZENS FOR STINZIANO campaign mailed literature to registered voters that promoted both his

1/ The November 9, 1993 correspondence from the Commission is directed to the Clinton for President Committee. As an initial matter, the circumstances referred to in the complaint allegedly took place during the 1992 general election campaign. Accordingly, the Clinton for President Committee, the primary campaign committee for then-Governor Clinton, is not a proper party to this matter. However, in the interest of an expeditious dispatch of this groundless complaint, this response is submitted on behalf of the Clinton/Gore '92 Committee (the general election committee), as well.

campaign and the Bill Clinton presidential campaign." 2/ Mr. Neal apparently is unaware that "coattails" literature is expressly authorized by FEC regulations and does not constitute a contribution to the federal candidate appearing on the literature. 2 U.S.C. § 431(8)(B)(xi); 11 C.F.R. § 100.7(b)(16). Although the regulations condition the exemption on the manner of distribution of the literature, the complaint contains no allegation that those regulations were not followed by the Stinziano campaign. 3/

The legal authority cited by the complaint is equally unavailing. Mr. Neal cites 26 U.S.C. § 9003(a), which provides that:

In order to be eligible to receive any payments under section 9006, the candidates of a political party in a presidential election shall, in writing --

(1) agree to obtain and furnish to the Commission such evidence as it may request of the qualified campaign expenses of such candidates,

(2) agree to keep and furnish to the Commission such records, books, and other information as it may request, and

2/ Attached to the complaint is a copy of a flyer that bears the names and photographs of Mike Stinziano and Bill Clinton, with the legend "The Winning Team."

3/ The Clinton/Gore campaign does not know the circumstances of the production and distribution of literature in the Stinziano campaign, a state legislative race. However, without any assertion of violation of the "coattail" regulations, these respondents submit that it would be improper for the Commission to initiate the "full and thorough investigation of this matter" requested by Mr. Neal.

Moreover, if for some reason the "coattails" exemption did not apply, the expenditures by Citizens for Stinziano would be independent expenditures, not unlawful contributions, because there was no prior knowledge by Clinton/Gore of the production of this literature. See 2 U.S.C. § 431(17); 11 C.F.R. § 109.1(a).

(3) agree to an audit and examination by the Commission under section 9007 and to pay any amounts required to be paid under such section.

Nothing in this section is implicated by the allegations of the complaint.

For the foregoing reasons, the Clinton for President Committee, Inc. and Robert A. Farmer, as Treasurer, on behalf of themselves and the Clinton/Gore '92 Committee, request that the Federal Election Commission promptly find no reason to believe that any violation of law has been committed by these respondents and close this matter as to them.

Dear Ms. Taksar:

I have received your letter addressed to the Cordray Committee about the matter you have designated as MUR 3830. Your letter states that you received a complaint filed by Jerry Neal, which is based on a mailing of campaign literature during the 1992 general election campaign that was sent out by the Citizens for Stinziano campaign. As I understand it, Mr. Neal alleges that this mailing was improper because it made reference to Richard Cordray and included a picture of Richard.

The mailing in question was not authorized, either in advance or afterwards, by the Cordray Committee or by anyone associated with our Committee. The picture of Richard that was used to create the mailing was not obtained from Richard or from anyone associated with our Committee. The use of Richard's name and picture was made without our consent or approval. Our permission was neither sought nor given. It is my understanding that this statement of the facts is not disputed by anyone related to this incident.

We believe and understand that we have complied with the federal campaign laws in all respects. Please let me know if you have any further questions or comments or if you would like someone from our Committee to submit a sworn statement.

2. My address is 7505 Bunker Hill Road, Amanda, OH 43102.
3. I am treasurer of Citizens for Stinziano, an Ohio candidate campaign committee as "campaign committee" is defined by Ohio Rev. Code §3517.01(B)(2).
4. Citizens for Stinziano supports the candidacy of Mike Stinziano, a candidate for state representative for the 23rd House District of the Ohio General Assembly.
5. I make this affidavit on personal knowledge, information and belief.
6. Citizens for Stinziano produced and distributed the two (2) pieces of literature attached to the two (2) affidavits of Jerry Neal in the above captioned matter, the first piece which included references to Richard Cordray, a candidate for the United States House of Representatives, and the second piece which included references to Bill Clinton, candidate for the office of President of the United States, copies of which are attached hereto and incorporated herein as Exhibits A and B, respectively.
7. Complainant, Jerry Neal, was Mike Stinziano's opponent for state representative for the 23rd Ohio House District in the 1992 Ohio general election.

8. Exhibits A and B were used as handbills by Citizens for Stinziano for door-to-door canvassing and for polling place distribution and were also distributed by mail.

9. Exhibits A and B were produced in four steps by the Citizens for Stinziano Committee:

a. First, the concept of the literature was created by the committee.

b. Second, mailing and walking lists of the committee were organized in a computerized format, and labels for mailing were printed in sheets.

c. Third, the graphic design for the literature was created and implemented.

d. Fourth, the literature was printed.

e. Fifth, for pieces of Exhibits A and B that were to be mailed, labels were cut and affixed to the literature, and it was sorted and mailed.

10. The list used for mailing certain pieces of Exhibits A and B was one prepared by Citizens for Stinziano, consisting of raw data purchased from the Franklin County Board of Elections which was modified with the committee's targeting information, consolidated by household, and modified for certain voter histories.

11. Citizens for Stinziano controlled the entire process of producing and distributing any pieces of Exhibits A and B that were distributed by mail. It delegated to an independent contractor only the cutting and affixing of labels, bundling the literature, and delivering it to the post office.

12. After and during the time of the mailing, additional pieces of Exhibits A and B were distributed by hand door-to-door and at the polling places.

13. Attached hereto and incorporated herein as Exhibit C, is literature distributed by the Complainant in the 1992 general election that is strikingly similar to Exhibit B. It bears the names and pictures of the Complainant and of Bill Clinton with a message of express advocacy on both of their behalfs.

14. Exhibits A and B were distributed and printed by Citizens for Stinziano in response to the widespread distribution of Exhibit C.

15. After Exhibit C was distributed, the committee received numerous calls from electors in the district regarding which candidate for state representative was the Democratic candidate.

16. Exhibits A and B were distributed and printed by Citizens for Stinziano in an effort to alleviate voter confusion regarding who was the Democratic candidate for state representative in the district.

17. Attached hereto and incorporated herein as Exhibits D and E, are copies of Citizens for Stinziano's 1992 Ohio general election campaign finance reports.

18. I certify and identify Exhibits D and E to be true and correct copies of the 1992 general election reports that were filed by me as treasurer of the committee with the Franklin County Board of Elections.

19. A review of the Statements of Contributions and Statements of Contributions for Social or Fundraising Events contained within these reports indicates that all contributions received during the general election period by Citizens for Stinziano were within the limitations of the Federal Election Campaign Act. No contribution from an individual exceeded $1000 during the election, and no contribution from a political action committee exceeded $5000 during the election.

20. The payment of the portion of the cost of Exhibits A and B allocable to Richard Cordray and Bill Clinton was made from contributions subject to the limitations and prohibitions of the Federal Election Campaign Act.

17. Expenditures by Citizens for Stinziano for the creation, printing, and distribution of Exhibits A and B were made without cooperation or consultation with either federal candidate, or any authorized committee or agent of such candidate, nor made in concert with, or at the request or suggestion of, either candidate, or any authorized committee or agent of such candidate.

18. The picture of Richard Cordray that was used in Exhibit A was obtained from the Ohio Trucking Association, who produces an Ohio legislative directory containing pictures of all members of the Ohio legislature, which Richard Cordray was at that time. Attached hereto and incorporated herein as Exhibit F, is a copy of the page from that directory bearing Richard Cordray's picture, which is identical to that used in Exhibit A.

19. The picture of Bill Clinton that was used in Exhibit B was obtained by calling the Clinton campaign office in Washington, D.C. and asking for a picture of the candidate. No explanation was given or asked for what purpose the picture was to be used.

24. I believe that Citizens for Stinziano has complied with federal election law in the printing and distribution of Exhibits A and B, specifically in that, Exhibits A and B meet the exceptions and requirements of C.F.R. 100.7(B)(16) and that there is no violation of 2 U.S.C. §441(a)(1)(A) or 26 U.S.C. Chapter 95 §9003(a).

Affiant further sayeth naught.

WASHINGTON, D.C. 20463

June 6, 1994

Jerry Neal
310 Fulton Street
Columbus, OH 43215

RE: MUR 3830

Dear Mr. Neal:

On November 2, 1993, the Federal Election Commission received your complaint alleging certain violations of the Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971, as amended ("the Act").

After considering the circumstances of this matter, the Commission has determined to exercise its prosecutorial discretion and to take no action against the respondents. See attached narrative. Accordingly, the Commission closed its file in this matter on June 3, 1994. This matter will become part of the public record within 30 days.

The Act allows a complainant to seek judicial review of the Commission's dismissal of this action. See 2 U.S.C. § 437g(a)(8).

Sincerely,

Albert, as treasurer, of a complaint alleging certain violations of the Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971, as amended. A copy of the complaint was enclosed with that notification.

After considering the circumstances of this matter, the Commission has determined to exercise its prosecutorial discretion and to take no action against your clients. See attached narrative. Accordingly, the Commission closed its file in this matter on June 3, 1994.

The confidentiality provisions of 2 U.S.C. § 437g(a)(12) no longer apply and this matter is now public. In addition, although the complete file must be placed on the public record within 30 days, this could occur at any time following certification of the Commission's vote. MUR 3830
CITIZENS FOR STINZIANO

The complainant, Jerry Neal, alleges that Citizens for Stinziano made an excessive in-kind contribution to the Cordray Committee and an impermissible contribution to the Clinton/Gore '92 Committee when it mailed brochures which promoted the candidacies of Mike Stinziano for state representative in Ohio, Bill Clinton for President, and Richard Cordray for Congress. In response to the complaint, Citizens for Stinziano states that the Committee printed and produced the mailers at issue, the payment of the portion of the costs allocable to the Cordray and Clinton/Gore '92 Committees were made from contributions subject to the limitations and prohibitions of FECA, and the activity is permissible pursuant to 11 C.F.R. § 100.7(b)(16). The Cordray Committee responded that the mailing was not authorized by or produced and distributed with the consent or approval of the Cordray Committee. The Clinton/Gore '92 Committee stated that it had no prior knowledge of the production of the literature and that the activity at issue is permissible pursuant to 2 U.S.C. § 431(8)(B)(xi).

This matter involves a state candidate inexperienced in federal elections. There is no indication of any serious intent to violate FECA and the case involves a limited amount of money.
