

“THE RACE HOLDS NO TERRORS.” CONFIDENT ROUGET WAITS FOR ARC IMPACT

Ace Impact leads the Arc de Triomphe field | Scoop Dyga

by Tom Frary

As the only trainer to bring a winner of the “new” Prix du Jockey Club to the G1 Qatar Prix de l’Arc de Triomphe and succeed, Jean-Claude Rouget can be forgiven his aura of zen ahead of the all-important Paris rendezvous for Ace Impact (Ire) (Cracksman {GB}) on Sunday. While the yard’s Sottsass (Fr) (Siyouni {Fr}) took more than a year to complete the difficult double, late September’s freak heatwave means that the 2023 edition of this autumn jewel is not the dire test it habitually represents for the Classic generation. Showing alacrity that only the elite are capable of in June’s Chantilly Classic, Gousserie Racing and Ecuries Serge Stempniak’s unbeaten colt can again employ that power play with conditions to suit and a draw that is a pure gift for this GI Breeders’ Cup Turf qualifier.

Rouget is a veteran of keeping his head in such situations and he was typically steady in his pre-race assessment this week. “We’re not going to do anything special,” he said. “He’s quite calm in the morning and while it’s true that in a race, like all good horses, he’s more exuberant we shall just handle it as we always do. The track is going to be fast enough so everyone will be able to find a position and I’m not really worried that there isn’t going to be any pace.” Cont. p3

“THIS IS SOMETHING REALLY SPECIAL.” VANDEEK HAS THE ANSWER IN THE MIDDLE PARK by Tom Frary

Ruthlessly efficient and utterly dominant in Saturday’s G1 Juddmonte Middle Park S. at Newmarket, KHK Racing’s sprinter supreme VandeeK (GB) (Havana Grey {GB}--Mosa Mine {GB}, by Exceed And Excel {Aus}) sealed his elevated status by becoming the sixth G1 Prix Morny winner to double up here since 2012. Sent off the heavily-supported 5-4 favourite to add to his tally which as well as the Deauville highlight also includes the G2 Richmond S., the Simon and Ed Crisford trainee was over-enthusiastic in the early stages as James Doyle struggled to contain him within a five-strong group racing up the centre.

Into a split approaching two out, the writing was soon on the wall for his rivals as the 625,000gns joint-topper of the Tatts Craven Breeze-Up took command a furlong later. Cont. p15

“Ace Impact, given his stride devouring-action, should relish these conditions,” Rouget added. “We can’t be absolutely certain that he’ll stay the trip, but the manner in which he finishes his races allied to the fact that his sire had the required stamina lend me to feel fairly optimistic. The fact that he’s discovering Longchamp for the first time isn’t a worry, as the colt is a straightforward ride once he settles. The race holds no particular terrors! I’m just hoping for a race run at a proper gallop.”

Feed The Flame | Scoop Dyga

The Flame Still Burns...

In the days of the old 12-furlong Prix du Jockey Club, it was

Pascal Bary who held sway with five winners but surprisingly none of them managed to provide him with the Arc victory he so covets. Surprisingly, his top-class 1998 Chantilly Classic hero Dream Well (Fr) (Sadler’s Wells) cut no ice that year at display lingers in the memory.

Longchamp while his best Jockey Club hero Sulamani (Ire) (Hernando {Fr}) beat High Chaparral (Ire) in the 2002 Arc but failed to get past Marienbard (Ire) (Caerleon). Perhaps the fairytale victory will come during his twilight via his longstanding supporter and friend Jean-Louis Bouchard’s TDN Rising Star Feed The Flame (GB) (Kingman {GB}). This lightly-raced and probably still-improving colt is tried and tested over the course and distance on similar ground and the manner of his G1 Grand Prix de Paris

“He really likes Longchamp, because it’s a track that allows him the time to produce his potential,” Bary reflected. Cont. p4

The trainer added, “He’s a horse that likes to take his time and at Longchamp he can do that because there’s the long straight. He’s a horse that can be a bit cold at the beginning of a race, but he develops throughout the race as he goes further and he showed in the Grand Prix de Paris that he accelerated really well in the final straight.”

“Having such a horse at the end of my career is something very fortunate,” the trainer added. “Jean-Louis Bouchard is very upbeat ahead of Sunday, we have a magnificent colt and are heading to the Qatar Prix de l’Arc de Triomphe with a chance. Obviously, we are heading there with a mix of pleasure and enthusiasm and if not this year, it will be next year! He will be an even better four-year-old.”

Japan’s Long Wait To End?

Over the past two seasons, it is clear that Japan sits at the forefront of the international racing world and most would agree that it is only a matter of time before the country achieves the Arc glory it has strived for with such admirable determination and patience. While the 5-year-old mare Through Seven Seas (Jpn) (Dream Journey {Jpn}) seemed the unlikeliest of flagbearers for the nation when winning a Nakayama handicap in January, she has since used a win in the G3 Laurel R C Sho Nakayama Himba S. as a springboard to the big time.

That came when pushing the world’s best Equinox (Jpn) (Kitsan Black {Jpn}) to a neck in Hanshin’s G1 Takarazuka Kinen at a huge 55-1 and she has reportedly thrived since arriving in France. Cont. p5

“The mare was roughed off for the season after last August and she has strengthened up as a result.

I believe in the mare.”

--Tomohito Ozeki on Through Seven Seas

It is ironic that in a year when Equinox would have had his ideal ground to finally satiate Japan’s hunger for his prize, his rider Christophe-Patrice Lemaire could still be in for the ultimate glory ride on what could be a supersub of supersubs.

Trainer Tomohito Ozeki is on the verge of history, notoriety and immortality and he knows it. “For any trainer, the Arc is a huge goal which seems somewhat removed, but it is now staring me right in the face,” he said. “Everything has gone well in her training. She has acclimatised really well to a new environment. Through Seven Seas has reached her optimum level as a five-year-old. In her younger days she showed a lot of temperament, ate little, was very thin and lacked strength. The mare was roughed off for the season after last August and she has strengthened up as a result. I believe in the mare.”

A Solid Cast...

Representing the brilliant-to-watch G1 King George VI and Queen Elizabeth S., the race that Aidan O’Brien said was “turned into a St Leger”, are the respective monarchs of two of the most successful breeding and racing operations in the sport in Hukum (Ire) (Sea The Stars {Ire}) and Westover (GB) (Frankel {GB}).

While Hukum’s illustrious brother Baaed (GB) ended his career in anti-climax in the soft ground that blurred his brilliance, Shadwell’s latest flame could have done with plenty of the rain that undermined his sibling in last year’s G1 Champion S. Instead he has none and a very difficult wide draw, so perhaps his desire for attritional warfare will go unrequited.

Juddmonte’s Westover was a respectable sixth in the sapping, deep going in this 12 months ago, but a quartet of big shows at the top level this term demonstrate what an expert job Ralph Beckett has done with a colt that could have gone the wrong way. While he has a far-from-straightforward number one draw, Rob Hornby may have in his mind what his mount did when ridden forward by Colin Keane on a sound surface in last year’s G1 Irish Derby. Just what the G1 St Leger hero Continuous (Jpn) (Heart's Cry {Jpn}) is capable of is a tantalising mystery and he thankfully continues the long mission to at last marry the dear old Doncaster Classic and this ultimate prize. Had the former Ballydoyle legend Alleged not encountered the rock-hard Royal filly Dunfermline (GB) in that Classic prior to winning his first Arc in 1977, this would have been a story long since concluded. However, the stark fact is that in the extensive interim period there have been many in the Continuous category who have looked as good as him coming here only to have failed by some margin.

Thankfully for Germany, their own search for an Arc winner is already a past success story and the country is now a regular and rightly-respected presence in the race. In the hero of the 154th G1 Deutsches Derby, Fantastic Moon (Ger) (Sea The Moon {Ger}), it has another contender along with that Classic's runner-up Mr Hollywood (Ire) (Iquitos {Ger}) who remains unexposed and potentially problematic for his adversaries. Fantastic Moon seemed to beat Feed The Flame fair and square in the course-and-distance G2 Prix Niel three weeks ago, while TDN Rising Star Mr Hollywood is not far off the standard of Westover based on his battle with the G1 Grand Prix de Saint-Cloud runner-up Zagrey (Fr) (Zarak {Fr}) in the G1 Grosser Preis von Baden.

Then there is the spectre of the reigning G1 Champion S. hero Bay Bridge (GB) (New Bay {GB}), whose five-length dismissal of Mostahdaf (Ire) (Frankel {GB}) in Sandown's G3 Brigadier Gerard S. last May was a performance consistent with what is required to win one of these. Among those who rate as "outsiders", Sir Michael Stoute's fully-mature charge is the stand-out during an era that is favouring experience over youthful zest. Cont. p7

Raiders Take Aim At Beauvatier In The Lagardere...

Sunday's action at ParisLongchamp begins with an open-looking renewal of the G1 Qatar Prix Jean-Luc Lagardere, in which Philippe Allaire and Haras d'Etreham's TDN Rising Star Beauvatier (Fr) (Lope De Vega {Ire}) puts his unbeaten record on the line against the usual collection of British and Irish challengers. Stall seven is no problem, but seven overseas peers in attendance could be as he bids to show he is more than just a very effective group 3 bully.

There is no arguing with his string of precision strikes, starting with the edging out of the high-class Ramatuelle (Justify) in a Saint-Cloud showdown in May followed by an upstaging of the subsequent G3 Prix des Chenes winner Zabiari (GB) (Wootton Bassett (GB)) in Deauville's Listed Prix Roland de Chambure in July. Even his defeat of Evade (Fr) (Wootton Bassett (GB)) in the course-and-distance G3 Prix la Rochette in early September stands up well, but the trouble for

Zabiari | Scoop Dyga

Yann Barberot and co. is that he has no direct line to the likes of fellow TDN Rising Star Unquestionable (Fr) (Wootton Bassett (GB)) from Ballydoyle or the still-exciting Hannon trainee Rosallion (Ire) (Blue Point {Ire}).

Where Rosallion is concerned, it is a question of whether the version that ran away with Ascot's Listed Pat Eddery S. turns up or the one that flopped in third in the G2 Champagne S. at Doncaster. Sheikh Mohammed Obaid Al Maktoum's homebred grandson of his remarkable broodmare Reem Three (GB) (Mark Of Esteem {Ire}) has been done no favours drawn in 10 in a race where that really matters, so he will have to be every bit as good as he looked when dismissing the subsequent impressive winners Al Musmak

(Ire) (Night Of Thunder {Ire}), Alyanaabi (Ire) (Too Darn Hot {GB}) and Dancing Gemini (Ire) (Camelot (GB)) on the King George card. Cont. p8

“It looks like it’s going to be fast ground out there which will be much more to his liking,” Hannon said. “We were very disappointed at Doncaster and we hope he is going to show what he can really do. They went very slow at Doncaster and he just didn’t look like the horse we saw at Ascot or we’ve seen at home, so hopefully we will see him in a much better light.”

One of the live outsiders is Wathnan Racing’s unbeaten Tattersalls Ireland Super Auction Sale S. scorer Native American (Ire) (Sioux Nation) from the Richard Fahey stable responsible for Wootton Bassett who captured this in 2010 and who is the sire of three runners in this renewal. “They would be similar horses and both undefeated going there,” the trainer said. “I think Wootton Bassett had won four before going there. He was slightly more experienced, but this horse will have improved a lot now. He’s going to be a better three-year-old than two-year-old, but we’ve been really pleased with him since the Curragh.”

Another Turn-Up Due In The Marcel Boussac?

If there is one race on the Arc card that has proven difficult for favourites, it is the G1 Qatar Prix Marcel Boussac with no market leaders successful since Ballydoyle’s Ballydoyle (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) in 2015. Since then, there have been recorded returns of 8-1, 10-1, 25-1 and 28-1 which perhaps reflects the changing of the season and the flux in these juvenile fillies’ fortunes as a result. As a rule, proven sequence winners like Newtown Anner Stud Farm’s G2 May Hill S. and G3 Prestige S. winner Darnation (Ire) (Too Darn Hot {GB}) can find it hard, especially after having to travel, but with the sun shining like summer she could still have an edge despite her horror draw in 10 of 10.

Aidan O’Brien’s sole favourite on the card is his representative here Opera Singer (Justify), who is unbeaten over this mile trip and who came into her own when taking The Curragh’s G3 Flame of Tara S. in August. Drawn best of the main contenders in two, she carries the confidence of Ryan Moore. “This Justify half-sister to Hit It A Bomb and Brave Anna, both group one-winning juveniles, took a big step forward when winning at the Curragh last time. She looked a serious filly there and, although the likes of Darnation and Les Pavots clearly have to be respected, I reckon she has a big chance here to follow in the family footsteps,” he said.

Interestingly, the aforementioned Les Pavots (Ire) (No Nay Never) is a half-sister to a duo by Camelot (GB) that the Ballydoyle handler has recently had through his hands in Sir Dragonet (Ire) and Sir Lucan (Ire), but Haras d’Etreham and Craig Bernick’s TDN Rising Star is not surprisingly more about speed and precocity than those middle-distance colts. Cont. p9

After a string of creditable efforts over five and six furlongs, the Francis-Henri Graffard trainee is two-for-two over seven with a latest triumph in Deauville’s G2 Prix du Calvados but on strict form has to improve again upped another furlong.

In general, winners of this tend to be already battle-hardened fillies, with Wuheida (GB) (Dubawi {Ire}) in 2016 the last to come off a debut win and succeed. That augurs badly for Albert Frassetto’s highly-regarded Ribaltagaia (Blame), but what the Gianluca Bietolini-trained Lyon Parilly winner lacks in experience she more than makes up for in star potential if the manner of her performance in that 6 3/4-furlong maiden is anything to go by.

months ago, Blue Rose Cen (Ire) (Churchill {Ire}) seemed an unstoppable force by the time she had extended her sequence in the G1 Prix de Diane in June. Now approaching the G1 Prix de l’Opera Longines, Yeguada Centurion SL’s homebred has had her wings clipped to a degree with two defeats marring her otherwise admirable record. While the latter probably came as a result of insufficient stamina in the 12-furlong G1 Prix Vermeille, the prior reversal was marked by a sluggish display in the G1 Nassau S. over this 10-furlong trip.

Only fourth having been hampered in that Goodwood feature won by the more straightforward Al Husn (Ire) (Dubawi {Ire}), the dual Classic heroine is on a retrieval mission but Christopher Head is confident she is going to go out on a high in 2023. “I think that’s pretty much going to be the end of the season for her,” he said.

The trained added, “She’s going back to the 2,000, she’s had a tremendous season and we can’t wait to see her this weekend.”

With the possibility that Blue Rose Cen may fail to fire and Al Shira’aa Farms’ G1 Prix Saint-Alary heroine Jannah Rose (Ire) (Frankel {GB}) being drawn in 12, this could open up. There was only a head between that Carlos Laffon-Parias-trained 3-year-old and Lumiere Rock (Ire) (Saxon Warrior {Jpn}) in the G2 Prix Alec Head at Deauville in August and that subsequently impressive G2 Blandford S. winner has the upper hand from stall three.

Highfield Princess | Goodwood Racecourse

Weekend, Highfield Princess (Fr) (Night Of Thunder {Ire}) looks to bounce back on her first tilt at the G1 Prix de l’Abbaye de Longchamp Longines. Having dodged this burn-up 12 months ago in favour of a build-up to the Breeders’ Cup, John Quinn is keen to have a go this time on the back of a season which can be seen as slightly underwhelming. That may be a harsh summary given that her current campaign has yielded a win in Goodwood’s G2 King George S. and three placings at this level, but then she was such a force in 2022 anything other than a repeat was always going to engender a touch of deflation.

“She’s doing fine and has been well since the Curragh,” Quinn said. “I’ve been happy with her the last 10 days. She did a little bit of work on Tuesday morning and moved well and Jason [Hart] was happy with her. She looks well, it didn’t work out at the Curragh but Sunday is a different day.” Cont. p11

Of her draw in stall 14, he added, "She missed the break at the Curragh and slipped coming out and at least in 14 she has a bit of space where she can manoeuvre. I was hoping to get somewhere in the middle, like 10 or 12, so I'm not going to cry over 14. This is a nice flat track, she has good form on flat tracks and we're looking forward to Sunday."

Of the 3-year-olds, The Rogues Gallery's Listed Scarbrough S. winner Rogue Lightning (Ire) (Kodiac {GB}) is dangerously progressive albeit from the widest draw in 19. Others in the mix are the Flying Five hero Moss Tucker (Ire) (Excelebration {Ire}) and Clipper Logistics' TDN Rising Star Dramatised (Ire) (Showcasing {GB}) who needs to arrest a decline having failed to fire since opening her season with an impressive win in the G2 Temple S.

Rogue Lightning's trainer Tom Clover said of the post position, "It is a bit of a graveyard draw, but he's in really good form. We're not drawn too far from Highfield Princess, so hopefully that gives us some pace and he can run a really nice race."

Kinross Poised For Foret Defence...

The draw is all-important in the G1 Qatar Prix de la Foret, particularly when there are 14 in the line-up as is the case this year, so Marc Chan's ever-reliable TDN Rising Star Kinross (GB) (Kingman {GB}) has an immediate headstart in two as he bids for back-to-back wins in the seven-furlong contest. This has been dominated by British raiders since Make Believe (GB) prevailed for France in 2015 and one of his main rivals, the G1 Prix du Moulin de Longchamp heroine Sauterne (Fr) (Kingman {GB}), has a nightmare scenario from stall 13. In nine is Kinross's 2022 1000 Guineas-winning compatriot Cachet (Ire) (Aclaim {Ire}), who will need to go forward from there as she continues her road back.

Chan's racing manager Jamie McCalmont said of Kinross, "Knowing Frankie as long as I've known Frankie, he's not really one to become emotionally attached to horses but one thing is for sure, he really does like this horse and is fond of him. I remember last year by the time that race was run, the English crowd had got a fair few drinks in them and when they went back into the winner's enclosure the crowd were chanting 'oh Frankie Dettori'. It was pretty cool. Let's hope they are all singing again."

GERMAN OAKS HEROINE MUSKOKA SHOWS THE WAY AT ARQANA'S ARC SALE

by Heather Anderson

After an action-packed day at ParisLongchamp, Arqana's Arc Sale beckoned at Saint-Cloud Saturday evening, and the unique nature of the sale, which annually offers buyers the chance to purchase horses with entries on Arc Day proper, proved an irresistible draw.

One of two horses to make seven figures on the night and top the sale was G1 Preis der Diana heroine Muskoka (Ger) (Sea The Moon {GB}), who was knocked down for €1.3 million to leading buyer BBA Ireland. The price was the highest at the Arc Sale since 2016 when G3 Prix d'Aumale winner Toulifaut (Ire) (Frankel {GB}) and G2 Rockfel S. victress Spain Burg (Fr) (Sageburg {Ire}) made €1.9 million and €1.5 million, respectively.

Sold as lot 38 as part of leading vendor OH Consignment's draft, the Classic-winning filly was bred by Lars-Wilhelm Baumgarten of Liberty Racing. She is engaged in the G1 Qatar Prix de l'Opera on Sunday.

BBA Ireland's Michael Donohoe said, "I've bought her for one of my clients that has horses-in-training and breeds horses worldwide. She'll run in the Prix de l'Opera tomorrow and we'll then decide on a plan for her future. You don't have the opportunity to buy a Group 1 winner every day, so we're very happy. Her trainer has done an excellent job with her and she has a great pedigree for breeding."

An €80,000 graduate of the BBAG September Yearling Sale, Muskoka also has wins in the G3 Brummerhofer Stuten-Meile and Listed Henkel Stutenpreis to her credit besides her G1 Preis der Diana victory in 2023. Trained by Henk Grewe, she formerly raced in the colours of Stall Golden Goal. Her dam is a half-sister to dual French Classic winner Brametot (Ire), who stands at Gestut Ebbesloh. Under the third dam is influential German sire and top runner Monsun (Ger).

BBA Ireland purchased four head for a total of €2,050,000 and an average of €512,500. Blue Point (Ire)'s two-time winner Mondrial (GB) (lot 53) was a €370,000 buy from Jean-Claude Rouget, while the G3 Prix de la Grotte third Palerma (Fr) (Alex The Winner) (lot 3) cost €230,000 from the consignment of Nanon Scandella-Lacaille. Rounding out the quartet was the listed-winning Kizuna (Jpn) colt Yoozuna (Ire) (lot 23) at €150,000 from the Wertheimer et Frere draft.

Initially a seven-figure buy back by her vendor, G3 Prix d'Aumale heroine Freville (Fr) (Gleneagles {Ire}) (lot 25) was later reported sold at €1 million as a private sale from Haras du Cadran in partnership with Ecurie Melanie for 50% of her ownership. Cont. p13

The Christopher Head trainee holds an entry in Sunday's G1 Qatar Prix Marcel Boussac.

Bred by Franklin Finance and raced by Gerard Augustin-Normand, the dual winner is a granddaughter of the Listed Prix Miss Satamixa winner Fresles (Ire) (Royal Applause {GB}), herself a half-sister to G3 Prix Andre Baboin hero Celtic Rock (GB) (Rock Of Gibraltar {Ire}). Freville is also distant kin to Group 1 winners Luna Wells (Ire) (Sadler's Wells) and notable sire Linamix (Fr) (Mendez {Fr}).

Starspangledbanner (Aus), who sired Friday's G2 Rockfel S. winner Carla's Way (Ire), was also responsible for the third highest lot on Saturday with lot 44, Laulne (Fr), successful in the G3 Prix Six Perfections and placed twice more at that tier this season. Consigned by Yann Barberot, the bay, like Freville, was another Franklin Finance-bred, who earned group distinction in Augustin-Normand's silks. Nicolas de Watrigant of Mandore International Agency purchased the G2 Criterium de Maisons-Laffitte entry-holder for €750,000.

One of the bloodstock stories of the year has been the noteworthy success of the Emir of Qatar's Wathnan Racing, and a pair of lightly raced Dubawi (Ire) colts both offered by Wertheimer et Frere will now carry the Wathnan colours.

Kovanof (GB) (lot 17), a dual winner in France, hammered for €420,000. Third in the Listed Prix Pelleas this year, the 3-year-old is out of G3 Prix Cleopatre victress Terrakova (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}). Terrakova, in turn, is out of GI Breeders' Cup Mile superstar Goldikova (Ire) (Anabaa), and thus a half-sister to stakes winner and G1 Prix Rothschild third Goldistyle (Ire) (Dubawi {Ire}).

Earlier in the sale, Silawi (Ire) (lot 9) attracted a winning bid of €380,000. A winner in seven starts--one fewer than Kovanof--the 3-year-old placed second in the G3 Prix du Lys in June. A half-brother to the dual group placed Fasol (GB) (Galileo {Ire}), he is a son of G1 Prix Marcel Boussac and G1 Prix Saint-Alary heroine winner Silasol (Ire) (Monsun {Ger}).

Wertheimer et Frere was the second leading vendor with eight lots sold for a gross of €1,552,000 and an average of €194,000.

Part of the OH Consignment like Freville, Winning Spirit (Ger) (Soldier Hollow {GB}) (lot 22) caught the eye of Nicolas Clement and EDC Agency at €430,000. A full-brother to group winner Whispering Angel (Ger) and the stakes winner Wangari (Ger), the dual listed winner was third in the G3 Herzog von Ratibor-Rennen as a juvenile and he was second in the G2 Derby Italiano this year.

Muskoka stayed in her box during the sale | Arqana

Other lots of note were the Jerome Reynier-consigned stakes winner Zarakem (Fr) (Zarak {Fr}) (lot 39) who made €500,000 on the bid of NBB Racing and Haras d'Etreham; Peter Schiergen trainee and multiple group winner Calif (Ger) (Areion {Ger}) (lot 32) was sold for €400,000 to Oliver St Lawrence Bloodstock; and Friday's Listed Prix Montenica scorer Shalromy (Fr) (Shalaa {Ire}) (lot 19), who is a two-time stakes winner and group placed, caught the eye of Narvick International Agency also for €400,000. Cont. p14

Of the 32 horses that sold from 42 offered (76.2%), 26 made six figures or more for a gross of €9,811,000. The average and median also outpaced last year's figures at €306,594 (+5%) and €245,000 (+14%), respectively. In 2022, 27 horses grossed €7,880,000 for an average of €291,852 and a median of €215,000.

Arqana President Eric Hoyer and Executive Director Freddy Powell said after the sale, "We are very pleased with the results from the sale this evening. The figures from this type of auction are closely linked to the lots offered, and for this we would like to thank all our vendors for their trust and the quality of the horses sold through us. In response to this exceptional catalogue, buyers made numerous purchases for Europe and the United States for fillies, as well as purchases for Saudi Arabia, Qatar and Australia for colts. We wish the best of luck to all those who have runners tomorrow."

Putting to bed any fears that he lacked the versatility to excel first time on this kind of fast ground, the beau ideal was quickly into the clear to score by 2 1/4 lengths from the sponsors' TDN

Rising Star Task Force (GB) (Frankel {GB}), who denied Ballydoyle's G2 Coventry S.-winning fellow TDN Rising Star River Tiber (Ire) (Wootton Bassett {GB}) the consolation prize by a head.

"He's beautiful with a wonderful temperament and all of the talent to match," Simon Crisford said. "That race took a lot of winning today and the Prix Morny was an exceptional race. When he hits the front he does tend to idle and look around a bit, but I couldn't see anything running him down so I was pretty hopeful in the last 100 yards."

"We came here pretty confident, we knew we had something special," Crisford Sr added. "He's been working exceptionally well and he's been such a kind horse to go with it, everything was great. He was flat out asleep today until noon today. We couldn't get him up to come to the races. His mind is so good, which is important as it makes our job easy. This is something really special. He is one of the best two-year-olds in the world and has never let us down."

Crisford was also not discounting a return to the track for the G1 Dewhurst S. in a fortnight and added, "I think we're going to let the horse tell us as much as he can and we'll take it from there. He's a tall, leggy horse and he stands over a lot of ground, he could easily go further. Never say never, I think the person that will decide whether he comes back for the Dewhurst is the horse himself. If he tells us he wants to come here then we will." Cont. p16

James Doyle added, “I think he has shown all the qualities you need in a potential champion. He has shown he can do it on soft ground and fast ground on a variety of tracks. It didn’t go entirely to plan, as we kind of missed the break so I just came across and used Ryan as a bit of a target as I wasn’t convinced the ones drawn around us were the ones to be tracking so it actually panned out okay. By zooming across, I set him alight a bit so he took a bit of managing early. He is just a big ball of speed and when the gap came, he went through it pretty good.”

Ralph Beckett said of the runner-up, “He is a horse that we have crept here with, as you can see he is not the finished article by any means. This is a horse that has done it all on his own as we have not been keen to turn the screw on him. I think it is unlikely he will show up in the Dewhurst, but I’m really pleased with what he has done today. He has split two very good horses, so I’m delighted. He handled it very well today, better than I thought he would. He learnt again today. I’d say on the back of today I’d be keen to turn up here on the first weekend in May and you might not see him again until then.”

PORTA FORTUNA TAKES THE CHEVELEY

PARK by Tom Frary

While Newmarket’s G1 Juddmonte Cheveley Park S. was stripped of an important runner in the certain favourite Relief Rally (Ire) (Kodiac {GB}), whose dirty scope ruled her out of action on the eve of the race, there can be few complaints that Porta Fortuna (Ire) (Caravaggio--Too Precious {Ire}, by Holy Roman Emperor {Ire}) was not ultimately a worthy winner as she again delivered her potent blend of professionalism and class on Saturday. Surprisingly as big as 9-2 as the joint-second favourite given her exemplary record so far, the Donnacha O’Brien trainee who races for Steven Weston, Barry Fowler, Medallion Racing 2020 LLC and Reeves Racing was straight on to the case of Ballydoyle’s leader Cherry Blossom (Ire) (No Nay Never) and as early as halfway it was clear she was the one to beat. Cont. p17

Edging ahead a furlong out, the G3 Albany S. and G3 Coolmore Stud Irish EBF Fillies Sprint S. winner, G1 Phoenix S. runner-up and G1 Moyglare Stud S. third gave generously to Oisin Murphy to put some space between her and the blanket in behind with 1 1/2 lengths the winning margin to another Aidan O'Brien trainee in Pearls And Rubies (No Nay Never). There was a head back to the G3 Princess Margaret S. scorer and G1 Prix Morny fourth Sacred Angel (Ire) (Dark Angel {Ire}) in third, giving the form the desired solidity.

“That is the first time she has had proper quick ground since Ascot and she seems to be a lot better on it back to six,” Donnacha said. “She is a very good filly. I think she is fine at seven, but I think ground is important to her as she seems to be a lot better on better ground as she travels and quickens. She hit the line strong and the plan is to go to the Breeders’ Cup and the mile. We think there is every chance she will get that as well.”

“Her performance in the Albany was probably one of the best performances of any filly and then she has probably run a little bit below par on slow ground on her last two runs and that is why she was a bit bigger in the betting, but thankfully she came back to her form today. She is very uncomplicated and very easy to train and usually the good ones are. She is owned by an American syndicate and the plan was to go to the Breeders’ Cup at the end of the year if that was how it turned out so that is what we will do.”

“There is a lot of water to go under the bridge between now and the 1000 Guineas, but I suppose we would start her off in a trial over seven and make a decision then whether we go sprinting or go for the Guineas.”

Charlie Johnston said of Sacred Angel, “It was a very good run.

I thought coming into it if she finished in the first three we would be very happy. The only two that achieved more than us on the form book were Relief Rally and Porta Fortuna and one of those wasn't here. To finish a very close third behind the Albany winner stacks up as very good two-year-old form.”

“She breaks phenomenally fast and just as Ryan wanted to go forward on his filly that lit her up for half a furlong and she was maybe just over-racing and that is probably what has cost her second in the last couple of strides. After Deauville I was certain she will be trained for a Guineas next spring. The speed she showed today might make you think twice about that, but the Guineas is the be-all-and-end-all for three-year-old fillies at that time of year and if you need to re-route later on then so be it.”

SEA SILK ROAD TOO GOOD FOR ROYALLIEU

RIVALS by Sean Cronin

Sunderland Holding's G1 Yorkshire Oaks fifth and G1 Prix Vermeille third Sea Silk Road (Ire) (Sea The Stars {Ire}--Oriental Magic {Ger}, by Doyen {Ire}) added to her victory in June's G3 Pinnacle S. with a decisive three-length triumph for a career high in Saturday's G1 Qatar Prix de Royallieu at ParisLongchamp.

Employing patient tactics off the tempo in rear for most of this 14-furlong stamina test, the 38-5 chance made smooth headway on the bridle in the straight to seize control entering the final furlong and powered clear of toiling rivals thereafter to easily outpoint 97-1 outsider Diva Donna (Fr) (Cima De Triomphe {Ire}) by open water. La Mehana (Fr) (Al Wukair {Ire}) was best of the remainder and finished 1 1/2 lengths adrift in third. Connections also won this contest last year with Sea La Rosa (Ire) (Sea The Stars {Ire}).

"[Owner] Mrs Tsui decided to keep her in training this year and she was right to do so as the filly is having a magnificent season," said Maureen Haggas. "Last year, she was still very immature, but she has made big strides forward this season. She has strengthened up, won a Group 3 race before being placed in a Group 1, and today she has won her Group 1. She really picked up at the finish, but has sometimes tended to prick her ears and idle once she hits the front. We're going to discuss the next step together, but I suppose she could be retired to stud. You can't improve on a Group 1 win. It's very emotional because she was bought as a yearling by John Clarke, who passed away this year. This win is dedicated to his memory and we're all very emotional."

Julien Carayon was delighted with the performance of runner-up Diva Donna and commented, "You had to take a leap of faith and she put in a very, very good performance. Nobody wanted her when she came up for sale this summer [her owners bought her back for €55,000]. People don't look at performances, they focus too much on pedigrees. She's a very good mare and we're now going to head to the [Oct. 29 G1] Prix Royal-Oak [back here]."

Sea Silk Road | Scoop Dyga

Reflecting on the effort of third-place finisher La Mehana, Jean-Claude Rouget added, "We're pleased because we were backing her up again following a two week interval and my horses aren't used to that. However, La Mehana had come out of her previous race in very good order and we knew that good ground was the order of the day."

He added, “Despite the soft ground in the [G2] Prix de Pomone at Deauville last time, the filly still managed to finish fifth against the same opposition. We reasoned that a place was within her compass and she proved very brave in a race in which no quarter was asked for or given. She helped set the race up by racing prominently, but she likes to run that way and dominate. She’s a really good filly.”

Pedigree Notes

Sea Silk Road, who becomes the 20th Group 1 winner for her sire, is one of three winners from as many runners produced by Listed Winterkonigin-Trial and G3 Grosser Preis von Lotto Hamburg third Oriental Magic (Ger) (Doyen {Ire}). Oriental Magic is kin to G2 Gerling-Preis and G3 Deutsches St Leger victor Oriental Eagle (Ger) (Campanologist) and MGSP G2 Prix Kergorlay second Oriental Fox (Ger) (Lomitas {GB}). The March-foaled bay’s stakes-winning second dam Oriental Pearl (Ger) (Big Shuffle) is kin to three black-type performers and a full-sister to the dam of MGSW G1 Deutsches Derby and G1 Grosser Preis von Baden placegetter Oriental Tiger (Ger) (Tiger Hill {Ire}). Oriental Magic has the unraced 2-year-old filly Next Trick (Ire) (Bated Breath {GB}) and a yearling full-sister to Sea Silk Road to come.

TRUESHAN OUTCLASSES CADRAN RIVALS IN PARIS

by Heather Anderson

Classy stayer Trueshan (Fr) (Planteur {Ire}--Shao Line {Fr}, by General Holme) seized the initiative under Hollie Doyle from the bell and carried the G1 Qatar Prix du Cadran field pillar-to-post on a sunny Saturday at ParisLongchamp.

Pressed for most of the 4000-metre race by Emily Dickinson (Ire) (Dubawi {Ire}) and Frankie Dettori, the 7-year-old gelding dropped the hammer when cued by Doyle 500 metres from home, which burned off his main rival inside the final quarter mile. Moon Wolf (Fr) (Intello {Ger}) launched a mild bid later in the straight, but the 9-10 favourite skipped away to win by four lengths over that foe. Run For Oscar (Ire) (Oscar {Ire}) was another 3 1/2 lengths back in third.

It was a dramatically different tale than occurred during the G2 Doncaster Cup S. earlier this month for the Alan King trainee, as he had fought Doyle for much of that contest, but gutted out the victory in soft going that day once given his head. The Cadran was the third top-level score for the Singula Partnership-owned bay, who took the 2021 edition of this race and the Goodwood Cup that same year.

Trueshan and Hollie Doyle take their second Cadran | Scoop Dyga

King, who did not make the journey to Paris, said, “I had a busy morning at home and I’ve just walked into Newmarket, but obviously I’m thrilled.

“I spoke to Hollie this morning and we thought there wasn’t going to be much pace in the race. We said if that was the case we’d let him bowl along in front and he obviously loved it.”

King said, "He was more settled than he was at Doncaster and I think that was firstly because that run just knocked the freshness off him and second he just settled well in front today.

"We were struggling with him in the early part of the year, but the little wind operation we gave him as clearly helped and it looks like he's right back to his best."

"He's a special horse and all credit to everyone at Barbury Castle," said Doyle, who was winning for the 10th time on the dour stayer. "He's trained by a super trainer and it's great for Alan to get him back to where he is, winning the Cadran for a second time. My mum and dad are here and I don't think my dad has seen me ride a Group 1 winner, so it's extra special."

A winner of his third G2 British Champions Long Distance Cup once again at Ascot to end his season, Trueshan was second in the Listed Further Flight S., and reported home fourth in the G3 Sagaro S. in May. After wind surgery, the Doncaster Cup was his first start since. He will target a fourth consecutive victory in the Long Distance Cup next month.

"The good thing is we have a fresh horse for the backend of the season and obviously we hope to go back to Ascot in three weeks' time to win that race for a fourth time," King added of the Didier Blot-bred Trueshan. "I'll give him an entry in the [G1] Prix Royal-Oak the following week just in case he needs that extra time, but Ascot would be the plan."

Pedigree Notes

The leading runner by Chapel Stud resident Planteur, Trueshan is one of six stakes winners for the stallion, who also has G2 Gran Premio del Jockey Club hero Road To Arc (Fr). Out of the winning mare Shao Line, the €8,000 Osarus La Teste Sale yearling turned 31,000gns Tattersalls Guineas Breeze-Up and HIT alum is a half-brother to four winners including Anecdote (Fr) (Enrique {GB}), whose son True Marvel (Fr) (Masked Marvel {GB}) was second in the G1 Sydney Cup. Shao Line's latest foals are a pair of fillies by Planteur and Golden Horde (Ire) born in 2021 and 2022, respectively.

CHALLENGE SERIES WIN AND YOU'RE IN.™

Unbeaten entering Saturday's G2 Juddmonte Royal Lodge S. at Newmarket but untried in black-type company, Jeff Smith's Ghostwriter (Ire) (Invincible Spirit {Ire}) came through the test with flying colours to count himself among the 2024 Classic contenders. Always travelling easily in the wake of Ballydoyle's front-running G2 Champions Juvenile S. runner-up Capulet (Justify), the 100-30 second favourite who hails from the Juddmonte family of a former giant to master this Rowley Mile in Zafonic took the measure of that 7-4 favourite when sweeping to the fore two out.

Pushed out by Richard Kingscote from there, the Clive Cox-trained 100,000gns Tatts December Foal purchase had 1 1/4 lengths to spare over the Listed Ascendant S. scorer Al Musmak (Ire) (Night Of Thunder {Ire}) at the line, with half a length back to Capulet who looked every inch a Derby type as he rallied after being swamped entering the dip.

This is a "Win and You're In" to the $1-million GI Prevagen Breeders' Cup Juvenile Turf, but Cox was not committing in the immediate aftermath. "He has been improving with every run and that was a big step to take," he said. "I couldn't be more pleased with the way he has carried it out and he looks full of promise going forward. The dam won over a mile and a half and I think he has a very good middle-distance plan to go forward with. He might get and a half, it is possible."

"He was very much in his comfort zone and Richard was able to play him exactly as he felt and he quickened nicely when he met the rising ground there and I couldn't be more pleased," he added. "He has always been a nice horse, but he has always been maturing and having a frame to fill while keeping his strength moving forwards." Cont. p21

He added, "This cements what we thought so far and the dream is very much alive for next year. We are normally known for our sprinters, but it is such a joy to have a horse like this on our hands as it does set the pulse racing. I'd say the way he is physically developing all the time means I'd probably be thinking about next year."

Pedigree Notes

Ghostwriter is the second foal out of the aforementioned Listed Cheshire Oaks runner-up Moorside, a granddaughter of Zaifafon (The Minstrel) who produced the brilliant Zafonic and his G3 Prix de Cabourg-winning full-brother and fellow sire Zamindar. This is also the family of the G1 Prix Jean Romanet heroine Announce (GB) (Selkirk), the triple group-winning Zarinsk (GB) (Kodiac {GB}) and the G1 Poule d'Essai des Pouliches place-getters Irish Rookie (Ire) (Azamour {Ire}) and Mexican Gold (Medaglia d'Oro). Moorside, who was a 90,000gns purchase by BBA Ireland at the 2017 Tatts December Mares Sale, also has a yearling colt by New Bay (GB) who sold for 150,000gns to Joe Foley at the Tattersalls December Foal Sale, and a filly foal by Australia (GB).

POKER FACE TAKES WILDENSTEIN IN RED-LETTER DAY FOR CRISFORDS by Heather Anderson

Shortly after Vandeek (GB) (Havana Grey {GB}) stormed to G1 Juddmonte Middle Park S. success at Newmarket on Saturday, it was another group victory for the training duo of Simon and Ed Crisford, as Poker Face (Ire) (Fastnet Rock {Aus}) pounced in the G2 Qatar Prix Daniel Wildenstein over 1600 metres at ParisLongchamp.

In midpack from the jump as G3 Sovereign S. winner Embesto (GB) (Roaring Lion) chaired the vanguard up front with Colombier (GB) (Kingman {GB}), the 4-year-old gelding waited patiently for his call up, and, with 1 1/2 furlongs remaining, pounced on the embattled longtime leader inside the 300-metre mark. At the line, the 43-10 shot was two lengths clear of the rallying 23-10 favourite, Group 3 winner and G1 Poule d'Essai des Poulains second Isaac Shelby (GB) (Night Of Thunder {Ire}). Belbek (Fr) (Showcasing {GB}), a winner of the G1 Prix Jean-Luc Lagardere last term, was a neck behind in third and he just nipped Embesto by a head for fourth. Cont. p22

A winner of all three of his starts at three, the Edward Ware runner was runner-up in the G3 Earl of Sefton S. in April and earned more black-type when second in a Sandown listed affair three starts later in July. Taking the Listed Pomfret S. at Pontefract at the end of that month, he triumphed in the G3 Prix Quincey at Deauville near the end of August.

“It’s been an incredible two days and I’m delighted for everyone involved,” said the Crisfords’ racing manager Liam Elvidge. “It’s been the plan to come here for the Daniel Wildenstein with Poker Face, expecting the ground to be a little bit softer, but he’s put in a helluva performance. That’s his third win on the bounce after winning a Listed race at Pontefract and a Group 3 at Deauville. To come here and win on Arc weekend is an amazing achievement. We will get him home to Newmarket and see how he comes out of the race before deciding whether to give him another run this year or wait for next year.”

Pedigree Notes

Bred by Rockhart Trading, the 95,000gns Tattersalls October Book 1 yearling was snapped up by Richard Frisby Bloodstock. Poker Face is one of 122 group winners worldwide for the excellent former reverse shuttle stallion Fastnet Rock, who now resides permanently at Coolmore Australia.

A full-brother to dual American stakes winner Star Devine (Ire), who was also placed twice in Grade IIIs in the US, Poker Face is followed by full-siblings born in 2020-2022--the 3-year-old filly Star Rockette (Ire), the juvenile colt Odyssey Fox (Ire) and a yearling full-sister who will be consigned by Marlhill House Stud as lot 724 during the upcoming Tattersalls October Yearling Sale Book 2 in October. Stars At Night, who won at three and is a half-sister to triple Group 1 winner Blue Bunting (Dynaformer), was covered by American Triple Crown winner Justify this spring.

HORIZON DORE SWOOPS LATE FOR PRIX DOLLAR TRIUMPH by Sean Cronin

Patrice Cottier trainee Horizon Dore (Fr) (Dabirsim {Fr}--Sweet Alabama {Fr}, by Enrique {GB}), who prevailed in July's G2 Prix Eugene Adam, doubled his pattern-race tally when snagging this month's G3 Prix du Prince d'Orange at ParisLongchamp and secured a fourth straight success when returning to the Bois de Boulogne venue for a taking victory Saturday's G2 Qatar Prix Dollar.

Unhurried and settled back in the field to race several lengths off the clear leader Jack Darcy (Ire) (Gleneagles {Ire}) in seventh until turning for home, the 7-10 favourite made eyecatching progress on the bridle in the straight and unleashed a devastating turn of foot once shaken up with 350 metres remaining to usurp Jack Darcy by 1 1/4 lengths nearing the line. The long-time leader's frontrunning tactics almost paid dividends and he kept on well to hold Erevann (Fr) (Dubawi {Ire}) by a neck for second. Cont. p23

“He has a huge talent, we have seen that since the start of the season and we are very lucky to have him,” reflected Pauline Chehboub. “Mickael [Barzalona] said he broke well and he did what he wanted and he has that very good acceleration that champion horses have. We want to get back our title in the [G1] Qipco Champion S. [having won with Sealiway in 2021]. I can’t wait to be there and see you in Ascot.”

DAIWA MAJOR’S DOUBLE MAJOR STRIKES IN THE CHAUDENAY by Sean Cronin

Christophe Ferland’s stable had not been firing on all cylinders during the summer months, but gave notice of a return to form with Shalromy’s Listed Prix Matchem victory at Saint-Cloud on Friday, and the trainer’s upturn in fortunes continued after Double Major (Ire) (Daiwa Major {Jpn}--Dancequest {Ire}, by Dansili {GB}) annexed Saturday’s G2 Qatar Prix Chaudenay at ParisLongchamp.

Alain and Gerard Wertheimer’s homebred 3-year-old went untested as a juvenile and had run second in all three prior black-type starts, including a second to the reopposing Gallerist (Fr) (Zoffany {Ire}) in August’s G3 Prix de Lutece over the same 15-furlong course and distance when last seen. Positioned behind the pacesetting Kahraman (Fr) (Shamalagan {Fr}) for the most part, he eased by that rival with 500 metres remaining and kept on in resolute fashion under a drive inside the final quarter-mile to hold the closers, headed by Harbour Wind (Ire) (Nathaniel {Ire}), by 3/4-of-a-length for a first black-type success of any kind. Shembala (Ire) (Cracksman {GB}) was a short-neck away in third.

Pedigree Notes

Double Major becomes the second pattern-race winner out of Listed Prix de Liancourt third Dancequest (Ire) (Dansili {GB}), whose first was G3 Prix de Guiche victor Flop Shot (Ire) (New Approach {Ire}). She is also the dam of the stakes-placed Veritas (Ire) (Camelot {GB}), the unraced 2-year-old filly Tyra (GB) (Lope De Vega {Ire}), a yearling filly by Dubawi (Ire) and a weanling colt by Lope De Vega (Ire). Dancequest is a half-sister to G1 Grand Prix de Saint-Cloud heroine Plumania (GB) (Anabaa) and G2 Prix de Royallieu victrix Balladeuse (Fr) (Singspiel {Ire}). Cont. p24

ASTRO KING (IRE) (g, 6, Kingman {GB}--Astroglia, by Montjeu {Ire}), formerly with Sir Michael Stoute, was carrying top weight for this prestigious Cambridgeshire Handicap having given the handicapper no choice after taking a competitive contest over an extended 10 furlongs at York in August. Cont. p26

Held up early by Richard Kingscote, the 20-1 shot crept into the thick of the action along the stand's rail and once edging ahead inside the final furlong saw off the red-hot 5-2 favourite Greek Order (GB) (Kingman {GB}) by half a length. In doing so, he made weight-carrying history in race, upstaging the 9 stone 10 pounds hauled by the 1995 winner Cap Juluca. "We didn't pay a fortune for him and you always buy hoping you can win races like this. It doesn't work very often but it has worked very well with him," Daniel Kubler said. "We will have to go into stakes company now. He could have run in a listed race, but they are worth £50,000 or £60,000 and this is worth £100,000 to the winner." The trainer has an eye on the Bahrain International Trophy in November. "You hope something like this goes well and hopefully he might be rated high enough to go out there," he added. "It will be fast ground over 10 furlongs and it is a massive prize." The dam, whose colt foal is by Magna Grecia (Ire), hails from an esteemed Niarchos family and is a daughter of the Listed Prix Imprudence winner and group and graded-stakes-placed Glia (A.P. Indy). His relations include the Arc hero Bago (Fr) (Nashwan), the GI Ashland S., GI Spinster S. and GI American Oaks heroine Emollient (Empire Maker) and GI Florida Derby and GI Belmont S.-placed Hofburg (Tapit). 1st-Haydock, £10,000, Nov, 9-30, 2yo, f, 7f 212yT, 1:45.42, sf. SHARDAM (FR) (f, 2, Too Darn Hot {GB}--Transhumance {Ire}, by Galileo {Ire}), sent off at 9-1 in this second start after finishing fifth debuting at Leopardstown for Jessica Harrington in June, bounced out of the stalls and quickly took over while under light pressure. Shaking loose with just under a half-mile left to travel, that move proved decisive, with the filly holding on to win by 1 1/2 lengths over the closing Marama (GB) (Sea The Moon {Ger}). Now trained by Archie Watson, she is the 21st winner for her Darley sire and the fourth winner from five runners for her unraced dam, Transhumance has a yearling colt by Siyouni (Fr) that sold for €200,000 to MV Magnier during this past week's Goffs Orby Sale, and a weanling colt by Lope De Vega (Ire) still to come. BBA Ireland purchased Shardam from Camas Park Stud for €100,000 out of the Orby Sale last year. Regardless of any other successes on the racecourse, Shardam is a valuable broodmare prospect, as her second dam is the blue hen and dual Group 1 winner Coup De Genie (Mr. Prospector), herself a full-sister to G1 Prix Morny hero and leading sire Machiavellian. At stud, Coup De Genie left four stakes winners headed by G1 Prix Marcel Boussac victress Denebola (Storm Cat). Other top-flight winners to trace to Coup De Genie are: the sire duo of Maxios (GB) who stands in Ireland and the Japan-based Bago (Fr), four-time Grade I winner Emollient (Empire Maker), and Denebola's granddaughter Senga (Blame), who won the G1 Prix de Diane. PRINCE RASAM (GB) (c, 2, Masar {Ire}--Exceed Sensazione {GB}, by Exceed And Excel {Aus}) became the sixth winner for his first-season sire (by New Approach {Ire}) after running out a two-length winner at Chelmsford on Saturday in his debut. Given an 11-2 chance to succeed here, the bay son of the winning Exceed Sensazione was anxious in the stalls and hopped a bit once the gates opened. Settled in third, the Michael Bell trainee saved every inch of ground as the favoured Deira Mile (Ire) (Camelot {GB}) showed the way. Relaxing nicely for Callum Shepard, Prince Rasam cut the corner into the home straight to move into second and took aim on the crowd's pick, who was noticeably green in the later stages. Prince Rasam charged past that foe on the outside and drew away to win comfortably. A half-sister to G3 Premio Federico Tesio scorer Fair Nashwan (GB) (Nashwan) who was also third in both the G1 Gran Premio del Jockey Club Italiano and the G1 Premio Oaks d'Italia, Exceed Sensazione has a yearling filly by Golden Horn (GB) named Eccola Di Nuovo (GB) and a weanling filly by Territories (Ire). FAIR ANGELLICA (GB) (f, 2, Harry Angel {Ire}--Fair's Fair {Ire}, by Lawman {Fr}), off the mark over six furlongs at Kempton earlier in September, was held up with two behind early. Making her move out wide in the straight, the 10-11 favourite had control with 150 yards remaining and was pushed out to score comfortably by 1 1/4 lengths from Perfect View (GB) (Outstrip {GB}). The dam, whose son of Sergei Prokofiev is catalogued in the upcoming Tatts Book 3 Sale, hails from the family of the G1 Prix Saint-Alary heroine Coquerelle (Ire) (Zamindar) and the G3 Prix du Lys scorer Spring Master (GB) (Mastercraftsman {Ire}). Taking over two furlongs out, the 11-1 shot stayed on strongly to beat that rival by 4 1/4 lengths and became the 16th winner for Coolmore's first-crop sire. The dam, whose yearling colt by Havana Grey (GB) sells in next week's Tatts Book 2 Sale, is kin to the Listed Rose Bowl S. winner and G2 Mill Reef S.-placed Saigon (GB) (Royal Applause {GB}) and the Listed Roses S. winner Tabaret (GB) (Bertolini). TRUE CYAN (IRE) (f, 2, No Nay Never--Realtra {Ire} {MGSW-Ire, GSW-Eng & SW-Fr, $466,246}, by Dark Angel {Ire}) was a 13-2 chance debuting on Saturday and raced near the stands' side close to the rear of the full field. A touch green when changing leads back and forth, the grey was eager to go and rocketed straight into contention inside the final three furlongs. Kept a few paths apart from her rivals in the rising ground, she acquitted herself admirably to run out a 1 1/2-length winner. Strutting (GB) (Frankel {GB}) was a nose to the good of 100-30 pick Rochelle (Fr) (Scissor Kick {Aus}) for bridesmaid honours. Stroud Coleman Bloodstock shelled out £150,000 for True Cyan

From training the trifecta in the G3 Breeders' Plate, Ganbare (Maurice {Jpn}) claiming the Listed Dulcify S. and Tropical Squall (Prized Icon) taking out the G1 Flight S. and Just Fine (Ire) (Sea The Stars {Ire}) claiming the G1 Metropolitan H.

Tropical Squall | Bronwen Healy

The 3-year-old filly, Tropical Squall, fell through the gaps, with most attention falling upon Tiz Invincible (I Am Invincible), looking to take out the final leg of the Princess Series, having won the G2 Tea Rose S. and the G2 Furious S., in addition to Listed The Rosebud. Tropical Squall, showing that customary Waterhouse and Bott bone and muscle, dared her opposition to catch her over the mile journey. With Adam Hyeronimus aboard, it was a case of the further they went, the tougher she got.

For Gary Portelli, it was a complicated watch, as his gutsy filly Kimochi (Brave Smash {Jpn}) once again filled a placing, while Tutta La Vita (The Autumn Sun) finished third.

As the Stutt S. showed on Friday night, the ranks of the Australian second-season sires are firm, with the first three across the line in the Flight S. all being by sires who fit into this category.

Pedigree Notes

The 11th G1 Flight S. winner for Gai Waterhouse, Tropical Squall (Prized Icon) just kept going strongly, able to go right on with the job after her gutsy on-pace G2 Tea Rose S. third. Turning the tables on the first two home in that race, she recorded her third win from just four starts.

Bred by Koorringal Stud--home to her G1 VRC Derby and G1 Champagne S.-winning sire--Tropical Squall was a bargain purchase for Gooree Park who bred and raced Prized Icon. It took just $16,000 to secure Tropical Squall from the Bhima Thoroughbreds draft at the 2021 Magic Millions Gold Coast National Weanling Sale--a great bit of buying!

Her sire's first stakes winner amongst his first 15 runners from his debut crop, Tropical Squall is one of the five winners produced by the Cranbourne maiden winner Squalls (Fusaichi Pegasus {USA}). Sadly, she is the final foal for that mare who died in early 2021. Squalls' dam is the G3 Frances Tressady and G3 Mannerism S. winner Blue Storm (Bluebird {USA}), also dam of the G3 Breeders Classic winner Steflara (Zabeel {NZ}) and ancestress of the G1 Thousand Guineas winner Flit (Medaglia d'Oro {USA}) and the Listed-winning sprinter Federal (Medaglia d'Oro {USA}).

WALLER AND O'HARA MASTERCLASS

by Keely Mckitterick/TTR AusNZ

A masterful training performance by Chris Waller was capped by a gun ride from Kathy O'Hara aboard Rediener (Redoute's Choice) in the G1 Epsom H.

Like most handicaps, the Epsom attracted a competitive and open field of different formlines. And as often happens, the horse on the rise with a lightweight (50kg) prevailed.

Rediener held off a late charge from his stablemate Kovalica (NZ) (Ocean Park {NZ}), while a courageous Golden Mile (Astern) held on to third after making an early move down the testing Randwick straight.

The Epsom Winners | Bronwen Healy

The champion trainer, Waller, shared post-race that the 4-year-old gelding had been set for the Epsom after winning the G3 Gunsynd Classic in Brisbane during the winter; his confidence grew after Rediener returned to claim the G3 Bill Ritchie last-start.

O'Hara, the partner of Chris Waller Racing's assistant trainer, Charlie Duckworth, was winning her third race at the elite level.

"Had a lovely run; it just panned out lovely for him, and he produced the goods. He's just a really nice horse, and it's only up from here for him. It's not the ceiling for him, so who knows," O'Hara told Racing NSW.

Pedigree Notes

He also provided his late sire with a nice farewell, being one of

JUST FINE GETS IT DONE

by Keely Mckitterick/TTR AusNZ

Remaining undefeated in Australia, Just Fine (Ire) (Sea The Stars {Ire}) had to call on all of his reserves as he managed to just get his nose in front of fellow import Spirit Ridge (GB) (Nathaniel {Ire}). Cont. p33

G1 Metropolitan H.

Known in the UK as King Charles' first winner, Just Fine was purchased by McKeever Bloodstock and Waterhouse Bott Racing for 300,000gns (AU$597,500) at the 2022 Tattersalls Autumn Horses in Training Sale. He is the 20th Group 1 winner--and one of the 113 stakes winners--for his Gilltown Stud-based sire, the 2009 European Horse of the Year.

Pedigree Notes

Just Fine is one of the four winners for the three-time-winning miler Bint Almatar (USA) (Kingmambo {USA}) whose other son of Sea The Stars (Ire)--Perseus Way (Ire)--is a winner over the jumps. Bint Almatar is out of the Listed winner Firth Of Lorne (Ire) (Danehill {USA}) who has been well represented by four stakes winners amongst her 10 winners - the five-time Group winner Master Of The Seas (Ire) (Dubawi {Ire}), the Listed winners Latharnach (USA) (Iffraaj {GB}) and Etive (USA) (Elusive Quality {USA}) and the G3 UAE Oaks winner Falls Of Lora (Ire) (Street Cry {Ire}).

The latter has made her mark locally as the dam of the G1 Doncaster H., G1 All Aged S., and G1 Australian Cup winner Cascadian (GB) (New Approach {Ire}).

MUSTANG VALLEY TAKES THE ARROWFIELD

by TTR AusNZ

Capping an incredible day for the Windsor Park Stud-bred gallopers was the Andrew Forsman-trained Mustang Valley (NZ) (Vanbrugh) in the G1 Arrowfield Stud Plate.

The 5-year-old mare returned to form, winning an open event at New Plymouth Raceway earlier in September, but showed she was well and truly back to her best on Saturday, claiming her second Group 1 success.

Joe Doyle rode the daughter of Vanbrugh, who stands at Windsor Park Stud, to deny Malt Time (Adelaide {Ire}) and Callsign Mav (NZ) (Atlante).

Pedigree Notes

It was a second Group 1 win for the terrific mare Mustang Valley, who has proven herself to be one of New Zealand's best miler/middle-distance horses. Bred and raced by Windsor Park Stud out of a mare they paid just $5,000 for at the 2017 Magic Millions National Broodmare Sale, Mustang Valley is one of the three stakes winners for her G1 Spring Champion S.-winning Encosta De Lago sire.

She is the first foal for the metropolitan maiden winner Cream Of The Crop (New Approach {Ire}) who was served last spring by Savabeel after foaling a filly by Hello Youmzain (Fr) with her previous foal being a filly by Darci Brahma (NZ). Cream Of The Crop is a half-sister to the Group 3-placed Balmaurice (Maurice {Jpn}) from the family that provided one of Australia's best in Might And Power (NZ) (Zabeel {NZ}).

NO SLOWING DOWN IN AWESOME AGAIN

Slow Down Andy | Benoit

Paul Reddam's Slow Down Andy (Nyquist) assumed command of Saturday's GI Awesome Again S. from the opening bell and made every pole a winning one, earning a fees-paid berth into the GI Breeders' Cup Classic over an extra eighth of a mile of the Santa Anita main track on Nov. 4.

"I was kind of surprised, I thought everyone would try to go," Reddam said. "The track has been pretty speed favoring all day and he just broke so smoothly that he was on top in three jumps and that worked out. We are in for the Breeders' Cup Classic."

Favored at 2-1 to snap a five-race skid dating back to a victory in the GII Del Mar Derby on the turf last September, the homebred--third to Defunded (Dialed In) in this event before filling the same spot in the GI Breeders' Cup Dirt Mile--bounced beautifully from gate three and set a lively pace over the rain-affected main track. The Bob Baffert duo of Defunded and GI Preakness S. hero National Treasure (Quality Road) tried to make a race of it as they swung into the stretch, but Slow Down Andy had something left and proved an easy winner by 2 1/2 lengths.

Defunded lasted for second ahead of Senor Buscador (Mineshaft), who attacked the wire for third.

ZOZOS LEADS HOME 'RISING STAR' 1-2-3 IN 'WAYI' ACK ACK

Barry and Joni Butzow's homebred and 'TDN Rising Star' Zozos (Munnings) took them all the way for an overdue first graded stakes success in Saturday's GIII Ack Ack S., a 'Win and You're In' for the GI Breeders' Cup Dirt Mile.

The 3-5 favorite set a pressured pace, albeit through very manageable early fractions of :23.69 and :47.10 going a one-turn mile beneath the Twin Spires. He let it out a notch as they straightened for home and held Justify (Scat Daddy)'s half-brother and 'Rising Star' Stage Raider (Pioneerof the Nile) safe by a length. Three Technique (Mr Speaker) completed the 'Rising Star' trifecta. Awesome Again cont. from p1

Paul Reddam | Benoit

Slow Down Andy, winner of the 2021 GII Los Alamitos Futurity and 2022 GIII Sunland Park Derby, made three previous starts this season, including a second-place finish in the GII San Diego H. July 29 and a third-place finish in the GI FanDuel Racing Pacific Classic S. last time Sept. 2.

Trainer Doug O'Neill was winning the race for the first time since the legendary Lava Man (Slew City Slew) took it when contested as the Goodwood H. in 2006. Baffert had trained the last three winners of the Awesome Again and eight overall.

“First of all, he is a super easy horse to train and I have to thank the people at OBR,” O'Neill said.

“Zillah does a lot of work along with Ocean Breeze, Carlos and Casey they do such a wonderful job. If they are all like him, it is about as easy as a job as you can get. He just goes out there and gives 100 percent every morning exercising. Tony Romero gets on him, he used to get on the great Lava Man and he says this horse is very special. Just to get a Grade I for Paul, Zillah, and for Andy and OBR it is really special.”

Pedigree Notes:

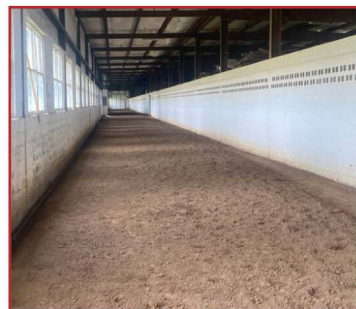

Slow Down Andy becomes the fourth winner at the top level for Nyquist, who was also campaigned by these same connections to memorable wins in the GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile and GI Kentucky Derby. Slow Down Andy is the lone graded winner produced by broodmare sire Square Eddie.

Reddam homebred Edwina E, winless in two career attempts, has also produced the late MSW Team Merchants (Nyquist) and a Nyquist filly of this year. She was bred to Nyquist for 2024.

Zozos | Coady

Zozos, a strong second at just third asking in the 2022 GII Twinspires.com Louisiana Derby, reeled off three straight wins earlier this term, including the Knicks Go S. over this same track and trip May 6 and the Hanshin S. at Ellis Park July 2. He was a disappointing fourth as the heavy favorite going 1 1/16 miles around two turns in Monmouth's GIII Philip H. Iselin S. last time Aug. 19.

"I didn't think he would get away with that easy of an early lead," winning trainer Brad Cox said. "I thought Florent (Geroux) did a good job to not let Caddo River (Hard Spun) get too close on his outside. He's run well this year and trained well out of his last race at Monmouth."

Cox continued, "I think he's now a really good one-turn horse. We'll see who's going where in the Breeders' Cup and make a decision on his next start soon. I don't know what we'd do if we don't go to the Breeders' Cup, but we'll let this horse tell us what's next. It's a lot to ask of any horse to make the trip from Kentucky to California against some of the best horses in the world."

Pedigree Notes:

Zozos becomes the 27th graded stakes winner for Munnings. Forestry is now the broodmare sire of 27 graded winners as well. The Butzows acquired the dam of Zozos for $57,000 at the 2011 Keeneland September and raced her to nine victories and eight minor placings from 32 starts for earnings north of

DOCTOR'S ORDERS: DR. SCHIVEL GUTS IT OUT IN SANTA ANITA SPRINT CHAMPIONSHIP

Dr. Schivel (inside) outlasts Speed Boat Beach | Benoit

In a battle of raw speed, Dr. Schivel (Violence) proved to be too much to beat as he outlasted a returning Speed Boat Beach (Bayern) to take the GII Santa Anita Sprint Championship S.

Last seen running a close-up third in the GI Bing Crosby S. at Del Mar over the summer, Dr. Schivel had plenty of back class to call on here: third last year at Meydan in the G1 Dubai Golden Shaheen for his only start of the season, second to Aloha West (Hard Spun) in the 2021 Breeders' Cup Sprint, and victorious in that year's GI Bing Crosby. He was also a winner of the GI Del Mar Futurity as a juvenile, making him one of very few runners who can claim Group or Grade I black-type every year he's raced.

Sent to the blocks here carrying 2-1 odds against a well-traveled line up of challengers, Dr. Schivel was quickly sent along after a light bobble at the jump to garner a forward position as Sir Atticus (Gormley) sailed though the early fractions in company of Speed Boat Beach, who was returning from the bench for the first time in almost 10 months. With that trio making all the running passing the three-furlong pole, Dr. Schivel took the inland route as the longshot pacesetter continued fighting off challenges to both sides but Speed Boat Beach looked intent on making a race out of it from the grandstand side. With Sir Atticus tiring by the furlong marker, the top two locked horns for the money and the race's 2021 champion would not be denied despite a valiant effort from the Bob Baffert trainee. Fort Bragg (Tapit) made a belated rally to pick up third.

"The whole plan was to take the same path we did in 2021 and it worked really well that year. It was within an inch of working terrific, but you know I think these sprinters want to run a little fresh and at the same time I like the four weeks out from the Breeders' Cup. Four or five weeks. He got a good race under his belt," said winning trainer Mark Glatt.

He added: "The ownership group is wonderful to train for they always allow me to do what is good for the horse, he's had his vacations and we've had to be patient. In some cases at times we had to be double patient and that's why he is around still because he wasn't pushed once he gave us the warning light. Hopefully he has one more good one in him and then he gets to go on to his second career."

When asked if Dr. Schivel will be seen again at the Breeders' Cup, Tim Cohen was very clear: "But of course!"

Pedigree Notes:

The most accomplished of his family, Dr. Schivel hails from a racing one as seven of his siblings have all made it to the races, more than half being winners themselves. Their dam is a winning half-sister to millionaire GISW Ultra Blend (Richly Blended); MSP Swing Thoughts (U S Ranger); and to the dam of MSW Lakerball (Lakerville). The most recent sibling to the races 2-year-old Lil Anthony (Anthony's Cross) is unplaced thus far, and Lil Nugget did produced a 2023 full-sister to Dr. Schivel. She went to Volatile for 2024.

2013-14 DIRT MILE WINNER GOLDENCENTS

Goldencents (2010 bay horse, Into Mischief--Golden Works, by Banker's Gold)

Lifetime record: MGISW, 18-7-7-0, $3,044,000

Breeders' Cup connections: B-Rosecrest Farm and Karyn Pirrello (KY); O-W. C. Racing, Dave Kenney, and RAP Racing (2013)/W.C. Racing, Inc. (2014); T-Doug O'Neill (2013)/Leandro Mora (2014); J-Rafael Bejarano.

Current location: Spendthrift Farm, Lexington, Ky.

The only two-time winner of the Dirt Mile to date, Goldencents had gameness written all over him. The Equibase chart for his second Breeders' Cup win summed up much of his career: "gunned hard," "met the oncoming challenge," and "dug in tenaciously."

"Goldencents was a special horse for us because he is the first horse that really began to put Into Mischief on the map," said Ned Toffey, general manager of Spendthrift Farm. "He and [MGSW & MGISP] Vyjack came out of Into Mischief's first crop. Obviously he went on to be a Breeders' Cup Dirt mile winner, the second win of which was in incredible fashion. He really began to elevate Into Mischief into the status of being a truly

Making his second start since a private purchase by Sheikh Rashid bin Humaid al Nuaimi's RRR Racing, Clapton finished determinedly down the center of the Churchill Downs main track to cause an 8-1 upset in Saturday's GII Lukas Classic. It was second victory in the race for trainer Chad Summers, who sent out Mind Your Biscuits (Posse) to score in 2018.

In part, Summers landed on the Lukas Classic over the Woodward and Awesome Again S. owing to his belief that there would be some pace to aid his charge's causes, and so it proved. Five Star General (Distorted Humor) sped to the front from his high draw and Americanrevolution (Constitution) followed him into the first turn, the field strung out over as many as 20 lengths as they tore through an opening quarter in :23.12. Trademark tucked in closest to the dueling speedballs, while Cristian Torres settled Clapton outside of favored Rattle 'N Roll (Connect) towards the rear. Torres asked Clapton for a bit of run three furlongs out and circled rivals five deep on the turn as Americanrevolution inherited the lead from a spent Five Star General. His lead was also short-lived, as Trademark looked poised to capitalize on his golden trip, but produced down the center, Clapton hit all the right notes late and was along in the dying strides.

“I was very happy with the way he was traveling,” said Torres, who won three races Saturday. “Around the half-mile pole I could tell I had a lot of horse beneath me. I tipped him outside at the quarter-pole and he kept coming with his run. It’s been a great day and a great meet here at Churchill. Winning these big races is a great feeling.”

Added Summers: “I’m so grateful to the owner for allowing me the opportunity to train this horse,” Summers said. “The goal is getting to the Dubai World Cup. If that means taking us to the Breeders’ Cup that would be great. But, the goal is getting him over to Dubai in March.”

Clapton won five of his first 21 career starts for his breeder and trainer Juan Alvarado, including his previous career-best run when upsetting the GIII Ghostzapper S. this past April. Third in

A fair amount of precipitation in and around Arcadia saw Saturday's GII Eddie D. S. transferred from the downhill to the flat 6 1/2-furlong configuration, but it all mattered little to MyRacehorse's Lane Way, who improved on his runner-up effort from last year to toss his hat into the ring for the GI Breeders' Cup Turf Sprint Nov. 4.

In the vanguard early as they sorted themselves out, Lane Way was fifth crossing the dirt track and improved inside as Noble Reflection showed the way at just a moderate clip for the opening couple of furlongs. Going comfortably and ridden fairly quietly by Hall of Famer Mike Smith as they raced around the turn and into the final three panels, Lane Way was asked to come after the pacesetter in upper stretch, pressed past with a bit less than an eighth of a mile to race and held sway as Bran gained inches late. Noble Reflection was just touched out of second on the post.

"He is just a really nice horse," said winning trainer Richard Mandella, who will this year celebrate the 20th anniversary of his four Breeders' Cup victories on a single program at Santa Anita. "We gave him a good rest. Kind of planned to get him at his best at this time of year and it worked. It doesn't always, but it worked this time."

Beaten three-parts of a length into second in this event last year, Lane Way bypassed the Breeders' Cup and took a second-level down-the-hiller Nov. 6. Runner-up in the GII Joe Hernandez S. Dec. 31, the bay won the restricted Clockers Corner S. Jan. 29 and was a useful fifth when first-up in the Sept. 2 GIII Green Flash H. at Del Mar.

Lane Way's 3-year-old half-sister Ragtime Rose (Union Rags)--a $525,000 OBS April breeder--was runner-up in this year's Sweet Life S. on the downhill course and he also has a yearling half-brother by Uncle Mo. Returning from a brief four-month respite and a third-place finish in the GI Shoemaker Mile last out over this course in late May, Hong Kong Harry showed the break proved prosperous and posted a hard-fought neck victory as the even-money favorite.

Smooth out of the gate, the Irish-bred import received his preferred trip and hugged the inside rail early, saving ground and tucked in behind the pacesetting Astronomer around the first turn and for the run up the backstretch, War At Sea (War Front) and Il Bellator (Shackleford) traveling just in front and to his outside. Full of run past the five-sixteenths, Hong Kong Harry waited patiently with little room to make a move while in tight all the way around the bend, and soon after the early leader made his way into the top of the lane, the eventual winner found clear running room to his outside and darted out into the clear for a straight shot to the wire. Astronomer remained steadfast in his effort to hold off the challenge to his outside down the lane, but within the final few yards he could not hold on and Hong Kong Harry was able to get past in time to snatch the win.

"He had a really nice trip, this horse was sharp today," winning jockey Juan Hernandez said. "Out of the gate he was pulling, pulling. This is the kind of horse that he always relaxes and comes with one run, but today I am guessing that he was feeling really good because he was really aggressive at the beginning. He was in a good mood and was just trying to run."

Hong Kong Harry kicked off his career in Europe where he was a four-time winner, and made his North American debut in allowance company Santa Anita in early 2022. He also won that year's GIII American S., GII Del Mar Mile and GII Seabiscuit H., but had been winless in three starts, all graded stakes, this year.

“He had his ears pricked ready to go and Juan just did a masterful job,” winning trainer Phil D'Amato said. “Angled out just like you like to see a turf horse do and motor home. I loved seeing that because he's kind of more of a docile type horse in the stall, but when he had his heels kicking up the other day it gave me a good indication that he was ready to go.”

JOE HIRSCH TURF CLASSIC MOVED TO NEXT SATURDAY

Following New York State Gaming Commission (NYSGC) approval, the New York Racing Association, Inc. (NYRA) has moved the GI Joe Hirsch Turf Classic from Sunday to next Saturday, Oct. 7, at Aqueduct Racetrack.

Friday's 11-race Aqueduct card was cancelled due to a powerful coastal storm causing widespread flooding and hazardous conditions throughout New York City and Long Island. In addition to Friday's cancellation, NYRA moved Saturday's 11-race card to Sunday and pushed Sunday's 10-race program to Wednesday.

The Joe Hirsch Turf Classic will be re-drawn with entries to be taken on Wednesday, joining a stacked stakes card led by two Grade I "Win and You're In" qualifiers at one-mile for juveniles in the Champagne [GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile] and Frizette [GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies].

MORENA, DAM OF CREATOR, DIES AFTER BOUT WITH COLIC

Morena (Per) (Privately Held), the dam of the 2016 GI Arkansas Derby and Belmont S. winner Creator (Tapit), has died after a bout with colic at Mt. Brilliant Farm in Lexington, Kentucky, according to her co-owner, Greg Goodman.

Goodman said that Morena was discovered in distress in the field on Friday, and died during treatment for the ailment. The mare was 19 years old.

Creator in Japan | Horsephotos

Morena was a multiple graded stakes winner and Group 1-placed in her native Peru, and came to the United States in 2009, where she placed in five graded stakes for Mt. Brilliant and trainer Michael Matz, including the GI Personal Ensign S. at Saratoga.

Upon his retirement, Creator was sold to stand at stud at the Shizunai Stallion Station in Hokkaido, Japan.

Gun Runner | Sarah Andrew

PAIR OF WELL-BRED COLTS BATTLE ON DEBUT AT CHURCHILL

7th-CD, $120K, Msw, 2yo, 1m, 3:50 p.m.

Drawn to the extreme outside, BLOWN COVER (Gun Runner) will make his first start for an ownership group which includes Spendthrift Farm and Gandharvi Racing. A $650,000 Keeneland September Yearling Sale purchase, the dark bay colt, bred by Machmer Hall and trained by Brad Cox, is the second offspring to make the races out of a dam who is a half-sister to GII Oaklawn H. hero Cyber Secret (Broken Vow).

Also debuting here is Track Phantom (Quality Road), another alum from that same sale who went for $500,000 to L and N Racing, Clark Brewster, and Jerry Caroom, with breeder Breeze Easy retaining a share. Out of GII Lexus Raven Run S. heroine Miss Sunset (Into Mischief), his yearling half-sister by Curlin just sold at Keeneland September for $1.1 million. TJCIS PPS

4th-CD, $120K, Msw, 2yo, 1m, 2:13 p.m.

Catching Freedom (Constitution), a $575,000 Keeneland September purchase bred by WinStar Farm, bought by Albaugh Family Stables, and trained by Brad Cox is out of GISP Catch My Drift (Pioneerof the Nile), who also produced SP Strava (Into Mischief) and GIII Peter Pan S. runner-up Bishops Bay (Uncle Mo).

Making the post just to his outside is Tis Charming (Omaha Beach). The dark bay colt who sold for $250,000 during Keeneland September is out of Derby Eve (Tiznow), who is a full-sister to GI Travers S. victor Colonel John. TJCIS PPS 9th-BAQ, $90K, Msw, 2yo, f, 1 1/16mT, 4:15 p.m.

Finally, over at rain-soaked Aqueduct, Spendalot (More Than Ready) will debut for CHP Racing. The Chad Brown trainee initially went for $240,000 to Cavalier Bloodstock during Keeneland November before selling to agent Mike Ryan for $650,000 in the same ring as a yearling. The filly is a full-sister to GII Wonder Again S. winner Consumer Spending. TJCIS PPS

More Than Looks | Coady Photography

More Than Looks broke his maiden earlier this year at second asking at Gulfstream Park over the Tapeta and was last seen winning the GIII Manila S. July 7 at Belmont Park before running third behind 'TDN Rising Star' Carl Spackler (Ire) (Lope de Vega {Ire}) in the GII Hall of Fame S. at Saratoga Aug. 11. The 8-5 choice here, the dark bay colt was taken back second last into the clubhouse turn until the Cherie DeVaux trainee was given her cue around the turn. Gobbling up the turf down the lane, More Than Looks took aim at Smokey Mandate and rolled past confidently. Out of an extended female family which includes MGSW Critical Eye (Dynamformer), the winner is her dam's first offspring, but she has a yearling half-sister by American Pharoah and as of Apr. 11, a weanling half-brother by Gun Runner. Ladies Privilege, who is a full-sister to MGSW Takeover Target, was bred to Upstart for 2024. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by FanDuel TV.

Brocknardini broke her maiden at first asking Aug. 2 at Saratoga by 4 3/4 lengths against New York-breds before being disqualified and placed 12th in the GI Natalma S. at Woodbine Sept. 16. Sent on her way at 7-2 here, the bay filly settled mid-pack into the first turn, bided her time until the top of the stretch and tipping to the outside, Brocknardini took over the race with less than a furlong to go. Out of an extended female family which includes champion 2-year-old filly Storm Flag Flying (Storm Cat), GII Dixie S. hero Parading (Pulpit) and MGSW Performer (Speightstown), the winner's dam is responsible for a yearling filly by Maximum Security and she visited Maclean's Music for next year.

Air Recruit won at first asking by 1 1/4 lengths Aug. 5 at Colonial Downs before finishing in third place behind No Nay

Mets (No Nay Never) in the Exacta Systems Rosie's S. over the same turf course.

As the 5-2 second choice here, the chestnut colt tucked along the rail into the first turn and ended up settling into fifth as favorite Tropandhagen (Demarchelier {GB}) showed the way up the backstretch. On hold in third around the far turn, Air Recruit ranged up on the leaders, took over the lead past the eighth pole, and cruised home.

"He always showed a lot of speed," said trainer Arnaud Delacour. "I didn't know about the distance, to be honest. That was kind of an experiment, but it was the right time to do it after two races. Depending on how he comes back and stuff, if we can get in the Breeders' Cup it could be an option. He did it impressively enough that we could give him a shot--if we get in."

Out of an extended female family which includes GII Sanford S. victor Desert Party (Street Cry {Ire}), the winner's dam also produced GSP Howling Time (Not This Time) and a yearling filly by Bolt d'Oro. She foaled a filly Mar. 12 by Not This Time and visited Epicenter for 2024. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by FanDuel TV.

Bet like the class of the field Saturday at 1-5, Interstatedaydream entered the gate at Laurel for the first time off a pair of on-the-board finishes at Thistledown in the Lady Jaqueline S. and, most recently, at Ellis Park in the Groupie Doll S. Aug. 13. To date, her only finish outside of the exacta in her career came in the GIII Baird Doubledogdare S. at Keeneland four starts back Apr. 21. An unbalanced beginning from the outside gate saw the favorite beat only one rival through a :47.79 opening half paced by Malibu Beauty. Wide throughout as she struggled to find racing room, Interstatedaydream was still four deep as she came into the bridle at the top of the lane but swept past Malibu Beauty with a sixteenth to run and cleared off to the wire to win easily. Mattingly | Ryan Thompson

OBSMAR; $165,000 2yo '23 OBSOPN. O-Champion Equine LLC; B-Michael Frank (FL); T-J David Braddy. $7,800. Margins: 1 3/4, 1, 1. Odds: 1.50, 2.80, 5.20.

Also Ran: Prevent, El Principito. Scratched: Hermoso Hombre, Roar Ready.

Mattingly gave his young sire a second juvenile stakes winner in 2023 and his third black-type winner overall with a good-looking victory in Saturday's Hollywood Beach S. over the Gulfstream synthetic surface.

Purchased for $70,000 out of this year's OBS March Sale with the objective of sending him over to Royal Ascot--where his sire was a strong fifth to Blue Point (Ire) (Shamardal) in the 2018 G1 King's Stand S.--Mattingly debuted in the May 13 Royal Palm Juvenile S., finishing runner-up to No Nay Mets (Ire) (No Nay Never), who received the automatic berth. Unplaced in the G2 Norfolk S., No Nay Mets has since added a pair of open-lengths stakes scores and is a leading U.S. hope for the GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Turf Sprint. An easy maiden winner over this surface June 24, Mattingly was last seen finishing a softened-up second in the July 16 Victoria S. on the Woodbine Tapeta and landed here for a build-up into the fall.

Off quickly from gate four, the Florida-bred was soon overhauled at the fence by Esperon, who zipped his opening quarter mile in :21.14 while opening a bit of daylight on the turn. Taking aim on the front-runner nearing the stretch, Mattingly needed to be straightened out by Samy Camacho approaching the eighth pole, but went to Esperon with about a sixteenth of a mile to race and edged clear. Okiro rallied outside the eventual winner into the lane, but was outfinished for the victory.

"I learned a lot in that Woodbine race," said winning trainer Joe Orseno. "When it scratched down to four horses, we thought, 'Just go. He's fast.' He got stuck in a speed duel to set it up for the horse coming off of it. I said, 'That's not going to happen again. I said, 'We've got to let the [Esperon] and [Prevent {Neolithic}] go.' That was the plan we took, and it worked."

Regarding future plans for the horse, Ironhorse Racing Managing Partner Harlan Malter said: "I honestly don't think he's truly a five-furlong horse, so we might just let them go knock heads at Santa Anita [in the Breeders' Cup Juvenile Turf Sprint] and try a race like the [Nov. 4 $120,000] Atlantic Beach S. [at Aqueduct] to give him a little more distance and to see what he can do back on the turf. But nothing is off the table right now."

Ironhorse also campaigns the Orseno-trained 3-year-old Bucchero filly Beauty of the Sea, winner of the Blue Sparkler S. in July, who also descends from a Gone West-line dam. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by FanDuel TV.

WOODCOURT (c, 2, Ransom the Moon--Warrioress, by Warrior's Reward) broke his maiden at second asking in a 5 1/2-furlong turf sprint at Ellis Park June 17 before selling bringing a final bid of $95,000 at July's Fasig-Tipton Horses of Racing Age Sale. Tried to no avail in both the GII Saratoga Special and on the grass in Colonial's Rosie's S., he kept to that surface here but stretched out past 6 1/2 furlongs for the first time. Positioned against the fence into the backstretch run, the 11-1 shot held fourth behind Steller Mischief (Maximus Mischief) and came in pursuit of that leader around the turn. Kept to his task to the wire, Woodcourt just prevailed by a half-length over Legal Titan (Algorithms). Warrioress produced a yearling colt by Midnight Storm but lost her 2023 Army Mule foal. MO TOWN MAYHEM (f, 3, Uncle Mo--Town Tour, by Speightstown), a well-beaten fifth going a mile on turf at Gulfstream Apr. 1, belied odds of 14-1 to graduate in a Churchill dirt sprint May 28 and was runner-up trying winners for the first time at Ellis Park June 23. The 1.95-1 favorite eased over from her outside draw while expending little energy and prompted a slow pace down the backstretch. Asked to accelerate with a bit less than three furlongs to travel, the bay struck to the front approaching the stretch and lengthened away to take it by 2 1/4 lengths. A full-sister to Souper Hoity Toity, MGSW, $378,642, Mo Town Mayhem is out of a half-sister to GISW former 'TDN Rising Star' Moonshine Memories (Malibu Moon) and SW & GSP Indian Evening (Indian Charlie). Town Tour is also the dam of the unraced 3-year-old filly Yay Hooray (Malibu Moon), a yearling Game Winner colt that sold to Chris Drakos for $230,000 at Keeneland September and was most recently covered once again by Uncle Mo. PURSUIT OF LIBERTY (f, 2, Constitution--Media Madness, by Empire Maker) controlled the pace in her Ellis debut Aug. 18 but faltered late to third as the beaten favorite. Nudged out of a favoritism at 3-1 in this spot, she was outprinted to the lead by Honor Cat (Honor Code) but stalked just off and readily put that rival away at the top of the lane. Lady Moscato (Quality Road) was her only challenger late but was always a safe distance back as Pursuit of Liberty hit the wire three lengths ahead. A half-sister to Union Blues (Union Rags), SP, $156,265, Pursuit of Liberty counts English highweight Hawkbill (Kitten's Joy) and GI Claiborne Breeders' Futurity S. winner and sire Free Drop Billy (Union Rags) as members of her extended family. BRIGADE COMMANDER (c, 3, Hard Spun--Inspeight of Us, by Speightstown) after stringing together a trio of third-place finishes since making his turf debut at Ellis Park in June, he finally broke through in his sixth career start to win here by 1 1/4 lengths. After the break, the bay colt sat off the early pace and to the outside of the frontrunning Athens Moon (Moon), who showed the way around the first turn and up the backstretch. As the early leader led the field into the far turn Brigade Commander was asked for his best run and while traveling wide, challenged for the front after straightening out for the drive. He reached even terms to the outside of the determined early leader with about a furlong left to run, switched to his left lead as he dug in to get by, and slowly pulled away to earn the win at odds of more than 7-1. The winner is a half-brother to Momos (Distorted Humor), MGSP, $316,098 and an as-yet unnamed 2-year-old colt by Audible. Sales Results: $325,000 Ylg '21 KEESEP. TEJON PASS (c, 2, Justify--Foxysox {GB} {MGSW & GISP, $715,118}, by Foxhound), fourth after a slow beginning in his Del Mar debut Sept. 9, got off to a faster start Saturday and set a pressured pace inside of Colorado Cruiser (Catalina Cruiser). The 2-1 second choice kept his head in front turning for home, turned back a late bid from Mr. Leisure (Distorted Humor) inside the final furlong, and lasted to win by 1 1/4 lengths. Foxysox, already the dam of Curlin's Fox, MSW, $224,728, reported a filly by Texas Ryano this year and was bred back to Visitant. AMERICAN WAR HERO (c, 2, Constitution--Libby's Tail {GISP, $224,310}, by Tiz Wonderful) drifted to 7-1 on the tote for this debut and after being shuffled back towards the rear of the field up the backstretch, the dark bay colt launched a strong rally around the far turn. Chasing a pair of leaders into the lane, American War Hero ran down Prado Road (Golden Lad) to win by a neck. His dam's first offspring, the winner has a yearling half-brother by Improbable, who sold last year to Cavalier Bloodstock for $80,000 at the Keeneland November Sale before going to Michael Rullo for $135,000 at the Keeneland September Sale.
